

Dear Parents,

I am sure that most of you are now well aware that we are on twitter. It's a really effective and secure way of communicating with parents. Twitter feeds are updated several times a week (if not several times a day) so you can follow what we're doing at school.

School: @brooksidesch Foundation: @brooksidefunit

Classes: @brooksideY1, @brooksideY2, @brooksideY3, etc...

Twitter accounts/followers have been cleared over the summer and you will therefore need to request to follow your child's NEW class twitter feed. Don't forget to let us know your twitter name so we can accept your follower request and keep Twitter secure.

If you're not yet a twitter fan, you can sign up in a few simple steps. (And you don't need to follow anyone else if you don't want to.)

If you have any questions or concerns about twitter, please ask.

Kirsty Hallam
